Bowls England is delighted to announce Sutton Winson Insurance & Risk Managers as sponsor of the 2010 Women's Champion of Champions Singles.

Since 1985, Sutton Winson has listened to clubs, associations and individual players to create a range of policies and services specifically designed to meet their needs.

For example, accidental damage to greens is included as a standard part of Sutton Winson's policy for bowls clubs. In addition, it offers clubs a cash contribution if players take out personal cover with them.

David Thomson, Managing Director of Sutton Winson, said: "2010 is the Silver Anniversary of our pioneering insurance scheme for bowls clubs. This year, we are celebrating our success and are proud that the scheme is the first and the most enduring. With more than 1,500 clients, we pride ourselves on delivering the highest quality service and we would be pleased to extend this to even more bowls clubs across England."

Tony Allcock MBE, Bowls England Chief Executive, said: "We continue to urge all clubs to ensure that their insurance meets their needs. We would like to thank Sutton Winson Insurance & Risk Managers for their support and look forward to working with them."

The regional finals of the Sutton Winson National Champion of Champions will be held on Sunday 11th July, with the final stages at Victoria Park, Royal Leamington Spa, on Thursday 5th and Friday 6th August.
